Special Resources: Montana's oldest library & only public law library, we serve the entire state (judges, state workers, students, lay persons, practicing attorneys). Students & residents of institutions are asked to go thru their local libraries for assistance. We have a complete collection of federal and all 50 states' primary law, & practice materials on all legal subjects which circulate throughout the state. We are better able to assist people if we are able to talk to them directly. Please have your patrons call us on our toll-free number.
